As summer break is drawing itself to an end, there is not a better moment to enjoy some quality family time while viewing your favorite movies on the big screen. This is possible with the opening of the "CineMAC". The movies we love come to life inside the MAC on the 17'x30' foot screen. To purchase tickets call 606-886-2623 or visit www.macarts.com. Gather up your family, visit the concession stand for that delicious popcorn, and then set back in comfortable air conditioning and enjoy an end of summer family activity!

ARTIST SPOTLIGHT

"Creative People are Storytellers and Storytellers are Healers" -Prabal Gurung

Art takes center stage this month at the Mountain Arts Center with two phenomenal and inspirational art exhibits. One of the artists showcased is Charmaine Wheatley, whose art is on display in New York's Museum of Modern Art among many other locations. This installation brings attention to the opioid crisis and how certain lives in Floyd County have been impacted by this ongoing epidemic. She uses watercolors to capture the person and direct quotes from interviews in her pieces.

The second artist is Jenn Noble Shepherd, who is from Eastern Kentucky where she lives with her husband and children. She uses multiple mediums to create her whimsical pieces that capture the beauty that is Appalachia. Jenn also teaches classes in painting and basket weaving. Make sure to carve out time this month to experience these amazing artists and their creations at the Mountain Arts Center.
